Michaele Layng

Global Health Expert

Global health leader with 20-years of experience building teams to design and deliver high impact programs across Africa

mlayng@wice.org

Linkedin

Contact

20 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Compassionate and dynamic global health leader with a Master's in Public Health and over 20 years of experience managing and delivering complex health programs across Zambia, Tanzania, Mozambique, DRC, and Uganda.

Michaele has worked extensively with NGOs, private sector organizations, and USAID, leading impactful initiatives in HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis (TB), maternal and child health, and addressing social determinants of health. As a seasoned international health development professional, she brings demonstrated experience in mid-level management of large, multifaceted health programs spanning behavior change, nutrition, immunization, and community health.

Her expertise includes program design, proposal development, and fostering collaboration among

Skills & Expertise:

Program/Project Management; Policy Development; Localization / Capacity Strengthening; Global Health; Stakeholder Engagement; Strategic Planning

Sectors of Work:

International Development; Public Health

Languages Spoken:

English, French

diverse stakeholders to build consensus and achieve shared goals.

JOIN US

contact@wice.org.

WICE